An act to amend Section 6254.21 of the Government Code, relating to public officials.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 1595, as amended, Evans. Public official: personal information.

Existing law prohibits a state or local agency from posting the home address or telephone number of any elected or appointed official on the Internet without first obtaining the written permission of that individual. Existing law also prohibits a person from knowingly posting on the Internet the home address or telephone number of an elected or appointed official or of the official's residing spouse or child with intent to cause imminent great bodily harm to that individual.

This bill would prohibit a person, business, or association, subject to specified exceptions, from selling or trading for value on the Internet the home address or telephone number of any elected or appointed official if that official has made a written demand of that person, business, or association to not disclose his or her home address or telephone number. This bill also would add to the list of elected or appointed officials covered by all of the foregoing provisions state administrative law judges, federal judges, and federal defenders, members of the United States Congress and the United States Senate, and appointees of the President.

State-mandated local program: no.
